VESPER EIGHT WINS FROM MALTA BY 10 FEET IN SCHUYLKILL REGATTA

First race this afternoon on the Schuylkill. Malta was 10 feet behind, with Crescent and Penn Barge dis-
West River Drives were both crowded with spectators of the events.

VESPER JUNIORS WIN BY ONLY TEN FEET FROM MALTA RIVALS

Desperate Struggle Marks Opening Event in Navy Day Regatta.

HARD SPURT UNAVAILING

By ten feet only, with the plucky Malta crew gaining on every stroke, the Vesper Boat Club's junior eight-oared crew won the opening event of the sixty-second regatta of the Shuylkill Navy this afternoon, over the American Henley course. The race, a thriller from the moment the four shells, Vesper, Malta, Crescent and Pennsylvania Barge, got away to an even start, was notable chiefly for the way the Malta crew fought desperately to cut down Vesper's lead.

From the automobile along the shore, which kept pace with the racers in a long stream along the east drive, could be seen from the first dip of 32 oars that the race would be a 'killer.' Under the trolley bridge at Strawberry Mansion the Vesper crew held the lead by a full length over Crescent, with Malta a good third and Pennsylvania Barge somewhat further back. At the mile mark, Vesper had shown open water between its stern and Crescent's bow. Then Malta spurted. Foot by foot she crept even with Crescent and then forged ahead. Abreast of Peter's Island her bow had caught up with Vesper's stern. Gradually she nosed along, her thin prow passing gradually along the side of her rival's boat.

On the east shore and in the boats around the finish the crowd was going wild, but the Vesper youngsters had too good a lead. The Malta shell was about ten feet behind when Vesper flashed across the line winners. An upstream breeze was responsible for the slow time of 4 24

UNDINE'S GIG A WINNER.

Undine's junior four-oared gig sprang a surprise in the fifth race by winning from a field consisting of Malta, Vesper and the Pennsylvania Barge. The Malta crew was second, having raced Pennsylvania Barge down most of the course. As in the junior eight her sprint came too late to pass Undine, and she finished a length behind, while Vesper sprinted and beat out Pennsylvania Barge for third place.

The association single sculls were easy for W. Clark, of the Philadelphia Barbe Club, won by ten lengths from Walter L. Smith, of Vesper. H. E. H. Cox, of Malta, was a fair third, with Harry J. McCarty, of Pennsylvania Barge trailing him. The same positions were held all down the course, Clark increasing his lead constantly.

Scenes like the above will be more and more common if the weather continues to be as liberal with high temperatures as it has been recently. The children generally have the advantage in respect to clothes and also in the numerous ways they can escape the heat.
